Featuring "Nostalgia Vintage Apparel"
By Carolyn Miller

The journey with vintage clothing began in the early 80's for Carolyn. While at an estate sale she was drawn to a small 1940's purse and just had to have it. At the time this was out of character for her as she was use to dressing in denim overalls, a red bandana headscarf, and using a diaper bag for a purse. But this handbag fascinated her. It looked so feminine, so elegant. It represented a time when women were well dressed and well accessorized for even everyday living.

Her collection has has grown from that simple little purse to garments and accessories from early the 1900's to the 1960's. She delights in sharing her collection and knowledge of vintage fashions with others and believes the "ultimate joy of collecting comes through sharing"

Plan now to attend and bring a friend to this evening of entertainment.
